MEMORANDUM TO ALL FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

SUBJECT: Talent Show to Support the Combined Federal Campaign,
“Star Search for Federal Idols,”
Tickets Now On Sale!

FROM: Cynthia McMullen, Chair, Combined Federal Campaign
Postmaster, U.S. Postal Service, City of Pittsburgh

Federal employees have responded to meet the challenge to perform in our “Star Search for Federal Idols,” our first ever talent show to support the Combined Federal Campaign, and we invite you to join us for a fun, exciting evening of entertainment on November 21st. Not only will you have a great time and support a worthy cause, you will be able to join a celebrity panel in selecting who are crowned as the “Federal Idols.”

Come and hear an original instrumental piece performed by a Postal Service duo, who call themselves “The Stamps!” Be enchanted by a GSA father/daughter rendition of “Beauty and the Beast.” If this doesn’t wet your appetite, come and be mesmerized by a VA vocalist, dubbed by staff and clients as the “Black Pavoratti!” He will be sure to raise the ceilings! This is an evening that you won’t want to miss.

All of this takes place on Friday, November 21, 2003 at 7:30 P.M. in an intimate auditorium located on the Highland Drive, VA Hospital campus. Tickets are available for purchase through the FEB office and also agency CFC key workers. Seating is limited and will be sold on a first come, first served basis. The cost/donation is $10 per person and $5 for children age 12 and under. Remember, all of the proceeds will go to support the CFC General Fund. Also, if you prefer, you will be able to designate your donation to a charity of your choice by completing a pledge card. Please join us for what we hope will be an enjoyable and memorable evening.
